

Parthia,

The Forgotten Ancient Superpower And Its Role In Biblical History

Part Three of the series: The Lost Tribes Of Israel
by Steven M. Collins

This book details the history of the greatest Israelite empire in the post-exilic period: Parthia. Even Roman writers acknowledged that it was the equal of the Roman Empire. In fact, its forces frequently defeated Roman armies in many wars, and Parthia was the only empire that Rome actually feared. Just decades before the birth of Christ, its armies drove the Romans completely out of Palestine, Syria and Asia Minor, forcing the reigning King Herod to flee for his life. This ancient superpower rival of Rome that lasted for half a millennium was the Parthian Empire. Its Semitic-Israelite origins are well documented as well as the fact that its single dynasty was descended from King David.

Parthia rose to power as Carthage fell, and the names of Israelite tribes and clans are in evidence within the Parthian Empire. Parthia's first capital city was named after "Isaac." Josephus, the famous Jewish historian, records that the ten tribes were a very numerous people in Asia and he identifies them as living in Parthia's empire. Secular histories have long acknowledged the Parthians were related to the Scythian tribes, and Scythian "Sacae" tribes often assisted the Parthians in their wars against Greece and Rome. Parthia and Rome fought battles that were among the largest and most pivotal ever fought in the ancient world. The Roman Triumvir, Crassus, met an ignominious death fighting the Parthians and Mark Antony led a large army into Parthia, but was driven out and barely escaped with his life.

Some of the events of Jesus Christ's life become more understandable when they are examined in light of the politics that prevailed between Rome and Parthia at that time. One group of the Parthian elites that chose Parthia's emperors was called the "Magi" or "Wise Men." A delegation of these high Parthian officials worshipped the young Jesus. You will enjoy the fascinating account of this important but little-known empire that played an important role in the Biblical story! (Full color cover; over 100 maps and illustrations, 256 pages + xvi; 16 pages of indexes: persons, places, Scriptures)

Ordering Information

Price: US$20 each, plus postage & handling of $4 economy or $7 priority for up to two books.
(Please add $1 postage for each additional two books.)

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Secure website to order and make payment on-line: <http://www.bibleblessings.net> (Mastercard, VISA, Discover).
Or send payment with order (checks, money orders) to: Bible Blessings, Box 1778, Royal Oak, MI 48068-1778 USA